Call to Worship

Leader: On this night, Christ gathered with his disciples in an upper room.

People: On this night, Christ took a towel and washed his disciples' feet.

Leader: On this night, Christ gave us this holy feast, that in bread and cup we may proclaim his holy sacrifice and partake in his resurrection.

People: On this night, Christ prayed in a garden, and gave himself into the hands of those who would kill him.

Leader: On this night, Jesus gave us a new commandment:

People: to love one another as he loved us.

Leader: Holding onto that love, let us walk with courage through the darkness of this night.

Hymn 202

An Upper Room Did our Lord Prepare

O Waly Waly

An upper room did our Lord prepare for those he loved until the end: and his disciples still gather there to celebrate their risen friend.

A lasting gift Jesus gave his own: to share his bread, his loving cup. Whatever burdens may bow us down, he by his cross shall lift us up.

And after supper he washed their feet, for service, too, is sacrament. In Christ our joy shall be made complete: sent out to serve, as he was sent.

No end there is! We depart in peace. He loves beyond our uttermost: in every room in our Father's house Christ will be there, as Lord and Host.

*Prayer of Confession

Loving and Merciful God, we come before you with humble hearts, acknowledging our shortcomings and failures. We confess that we have not always followed the example of your Son, Jesus Christ. We have been slow to serve others, quick to judge, and hesitant to forgive. Forgive us, O God, for turning away from opportunities to extend your grace and mercy. Help us to embody the spirit of humility and service that Christ displayed on this night so long ago – to follow in his footsteps, to wash the feet of others, and to offer ourselves in love for the sake of your kingdom. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Kyrie

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Assurance of Pardon

Scripture Reading

Exodus 12:11-14; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand, and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the Passover of the Lord. I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from human to animal, and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the Lord. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. “This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

Meditation

Remember Me

Rev. Christian K. Choi

Remember me, in a Bible cracked and faded by the years
Remember me, in a sanctuary filled with silent prayer

[Chorus] And age to age and heart-to-heart, bound by grace and peace
Child of wonder, child of God, I've remembered you, Remember me

Remember me, when the colour of our sunset fills the sky
Remember me, when you pray and tears of joy fall from your eyes

[Chorus]

Remember me, when the children leave their Sunday school with smiles
Remember me, when they're old enough to teach, old enough to preach, old enough to lead

[Chorus]

Age to age and heart-to-heart, child of wonder, child of God,
Remember me
Age to age and heart-to-heart, child of wonder, child of God

- Remember Me by Mark Schultz

Music at Communion

An Offering

Dan Forrest

O Christ, who spared not any cost, nor any grace withheld,
But poured forth your redeeming blood in love unparalleled:
What would you have me offer, Lord?

What must I count as lost that I may taste the fellowship that brings me near the cross?

Why should I cling to gifts you give? Why grasp in foolish pride
What you who gave yourself for me now bid me lay aside?

To know you is my highest gain, worth any sacrifice
A treasure worthy to possess at any earthly price.
Yet if behind my open hands, my heart shrinks from the cost,
Teach me that nothing offered you is ever truly lost.
A hundred-fold reward awaits in one glimpse of your face,
My sacrifice forgotten in the riches of your grace.

Prayer after Communion

God of grace, your Son Jesus Christ left us this holy meal of bread and wine in which we share his body and blood. May we, who have celebrated this sign of great love, live lives of gratitude and compassion; through Jesus Christ, whom we follow, with your grace, in death and in life. Amen.

THE SEVEN LAST WORDS OF CHRIST

*Congregational Hymn 223

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

Hamburg

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
save in the death of Christ my God;
all the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down:
did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
that were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.

First Word

*Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing."
(Luke 23:32-34)*

Leader: Before you die, Jesus Christ, and the world goes into deep darkness, take from our lives, from our spirits, from our consciences all that has offended you, all that has hurt others, and the inflexibility which has made us numb to the plight of those whom we could help and heal. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world.

People: Have mercy on us.

Leader: On this day, at this time, irrespective of our faith or lack of it, we accept deeply in our hearts Christ's only words that can set us free. Your sins are forgiven; your sins are forgiven.

People: Amen.

Anthem See Now the Lamb of God
See now, see the Lamb of God, bearing the sing of the world.

Gottfried August Homilius

Second Word

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise." (Luke 23:39-43)

Leader: Lord Jesus, remember us when you come into your kingdom, Remember us, not for our possessions, nor for the things we have accomplished. Remember us, not for the virtues we display from time to time, or for any credit we think we deserve. Remember us, as one of the criminal community, who hung at your side, and if life will not let us be in paradise with you today, Keep a place for us.

People: Amen.

Anthem Jesus, Remember Me When You Come Into Your Kingdom

Third Word Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, "Woman, here is your son." Then he said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home. (John 19:25-27)

Leader: For our families, where they are open, loving, supportive, that their joy might be kept safe,

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: For our families, where they are tense, troubled, fragmented, that they may find a way beyond the pain,

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: For ourselves, in this place of worship, surrounded by brothers and sisters whose journey we have not travelled, whose depth of faith we do not know, whose potential we cannot imagine, that we may know we belong to each other.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: And before you leave the cross and we depart from this worship experience, if there is one of your family for whom we could care more fondly, direct our gaze to them, as you turned Mary toward John.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Congregational Hymn

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

Passion Chorale

O sacred head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down; now scornfully surrounded with thorns, thine only crown; O sacred head, what glory, what bliss till now was thine! Yet, though despised and gory,
I joy to call thee mine.

What thou, my Lord, hast suffered was all for sinners' gain; mine, mine was the transgression, but thine the deadly pain. Lo, here I fall, my Savior! 'Tis I deserve the place; look on me with thy favor, and grant to me thy grace.

What language should I borrow to thank thee, dearest friend, for this thy dying sorrow, thy pity without end?
O make me thine forever; and should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never outlive my love to thee.

Fourth Word From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And about three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" (Matthew 27:45-46)

Leader: Lord Jesus, by your cry of desperate honesty, rid us of superficial faith which is afraid of the dark. Not so that we might be justified pessimists, rather that we might discover profound joy. Give us, when we need it, the courage to doubt, to rage, to question, to rail against heaven until we know we are heard. We do not ask for easy answers during difficult and painful times; there are many who can offer these. We ask for a sense of your solidarity, that will be enough to let us know that we do not walk or cry alone; that will enable us to go through the dark and find light again in the morning.

People: Amen.

Silent Reflection

Fifth Word After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said, "I am thirsty." (John 19:28)

Leader: You have made us for yourself. We know it, even if we cannot name it. We have had these bodies and these minds long enough to learn to live with our limitations. Yet, despite this, something in us longs, yearns, thirsts for something more. Thank you for the incompleteness, thank you for the yearning, thank you for this thirst. Thank you for giving us enough of you to want more that we may sense of the fullness of eternity within the limits of time.

People: Amen.

Congregational Hymn What Wondrous Love is This, O My Soul American Tune, 1810

What wondrous love is this,
O my soul, O my soul,
What wondrous love is this, O my soul.
What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss
To bear the dreadful curse
for my soul, for my soul,
To bear the dreadful curse for my soul.
When I was sinking down,
sinking down, sinking down,
When I was sinking down, sinking down,
When I was sinking down beneath God's righteous crown,
Christ laid aside his crown
for my soul, for my soul,
Christ laid aside his crown for my soul.
To God and to the Lamb,
I will sing, I will sing,
To God and to the Lamb, I will sing;
To God and to the Lamb
who is the great I AM,
While millions join the theme,
I will sing, I will sing;
While millions join the theme, I will sing.

Sixth Word

A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the wine, he said, “It is finished.” Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. (John 19:29-30)

Silent Reflection

Seventh Word

It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.” Having said this, he breathed his last.” (Luke 23:44-46)

Anthem

I Wonder Why

Richard Avery and Donald Marsh

I wonder why. If his disciples were like us here why they all left him and ran in fear as the world did crucify him?
Oh, I wonder why?

I wonder why if they were people like you and me why they refused then to set him free, for the world yelled:
"Crucify him!" Oh, I wonder why?

I wonder why men did not know him and love him then?
Would we now put him to death again?

Would the world still crucify him? Crucify him?
Oh, I wonder why? Why? Why?

MAUNDY THURSDAY, the name given to the Thursday before Easter, comes from the Latin Dies Mandati, the “Day of Commandment,” which refers to the commandments given that night by Jesus to his disciples: to “love one another” and to “do this in remembrance of me.”

Following Holy Communion, the table is stripped of all adornments to remind the Church of the catastrophe and desolation of the events of Good Friday.

Tonight’s service will conclude with the “Seven Last Words of Christ” interwoven with liturgy and musical reflections as we prepare our hearts and minds for the events leading up to Easter morning.

THE HOLY WEEK ART DISPLAY AND LABYRINTH – Following worship all are invited to view the art display in Parish Hall. This exhibit brings together artistic interpretations of scenes of the events of the final week of Christ’s life through the eyes of Fra Angelico, DaVinci, Dürer, Caravaggio, Dali and many others.

Westminster’s Labyrinth is also located in Parish Hall for those who would like to practice this discipline of prayer.
